

TD Ameritrade Singapore Pte. Ltd.

On November 12, 2020, President Trump signed an executive order (EO 13959) prohibiting United States (“U.S.”) persons and companies from purchasing or holding any securities that invest in mainland Chinese companies with ties to the military of the People’s Republic of China (“CCMCs”). The following companies and/or securities have been identified under Section 1237 of U.S. Public Law 105-261 and is subject to change at any time.

The executive order includes publicly traded securities (equities, bonds and other fixed income), as well as derivative products (options, warrants, etc.) and any products designed to provide exposure to the prohibited companies (mutual funds, ETFs, etc.).

TD Ameritrade relies on third party firms to execute orders and settle non-U.S. securities trades overseas; these firms may cease accepting orders to trade the impacted securities at any time. In the event this occurs, TD Ameritrade may not be able to execute a buy or sell order in the impacted securities for you. Other financial institutions may also be unable or unwilling to accept incoming transfers of these securities which could limit your ability to transfer them out of TD Ameritrade.
